Who doesn't love an excuse to buy more lip gloss like supporting programs that help women and children, especially those affected by domestic violence?

When Georgia Smiled: The Robin McGraw Revelation Foundation advances programs that help women and children live healthy, safe and joy-filled lives. (Yes, Robin McGraw is the wife of well-known Dr. Phil).

Now, about the lip gloss collection. I was lucky enough to receive a sample of Erica (pink rose) and was pleasantly surprised. The lip gloss is non-sticky (really!) and with shine and vivid color that isn't over the top. The lip gloss is moisturizing and hydrating so it suits just about everyone.

Here are the shades that are available in the collection:

- Erica: Precious Pink
- Marc: Rose
- Georgia: Peach
- The Elizabeth: Bordeaux

Each lip gloss costs $15.95 (US). All of the net profits from the lip gloss collection go towards supporting the domestic violence programs.
